The Comptroller has already been informed about the grants voted by Legis Council. As such, this order in question seems rather superfluous. May it be cancelled
To the Comptroller

Schedule of Demands for Additional and Supplementary Grants for 1925-26 submitted to the Legislative Council.

(June Session.)

No. of original demand	Head of account	Amount	Remarks	Amount	Result of Voting
		Rs.		Rs.
1	1 Land Revenue.	51,388	Anticipated excess due to (1) less transfer of charges to Courts of Law and (2) additional expenditure on account of increments falling due in the year and of leave allowances	41,388
			For increased expenditure on travelling allowance and contingencies consequent upon itineration of District Treasury Officers for inspecting Taluk Treasuries twice a year instead of only once as before and also of Deputy Commissioners for increased inspection of Excise shops, etc.	7,000
			Additional grant for Revenue Process Service charges. This will be covered by corresponding receipts in the shape of notice fees appearing on the Revenue side ..	3,000
			Total ..	51,388	Passed
3	2 Forest ..	1,20,579	For supply of balgi poles to the Electrical Department. Corresponding receipts appear under the Revenue Head	50,000

			For purchase of private Sandal-wood for distillation in the Factories from the Yelandur Jahgir, Kalasa Temple, the Palace and the C. and M. Station	44,000
			For completion of Police out-posts for preventing Sandal-wood smuggling	1,579
			Total ..	1,20,579	Passed
4	3 A Income-tax Refunds	2,24,000	This is due to large refunds to the Kolar Gold Fields Companies under Section 49 of the Income-Tax Regulation not anticipated at Budget time. The adverse decision of the Chief Court with regard to the Super-tax cases and the increased ordinary refunds consequent on revision of assessments on appeal and review, have also contributed to the excess.		Passed
5	IX Interest Refunds.	63,043	A loan of Rs. 30,118 was advanced to three branches of the members of Bakshi Thippaiya's family in June 1893 under deeds of mortgage with possession. The amounts credited towards principal and interest are Rs. 26,500 and Rs. 22,846, respectively. The loan accounts of two of these branches were closed some years ago. The account of the third branch alone is outstanding and the debtors do not accept the correctness of the balance shown against them. The re-examination of the account shows that a sum of Rs. 1,280 was recovered in excess on account of interest from one branch and that a sum of Rs. 1,543 is due by another branch the accounts of which were closed
